A RESOLUTION concerning the procedure for introducing a proposal or recommendation:

WHEREAS, several delegate proposals and substantive committee recommendations may be introduced in the Constitutional Convention regarding new state fiscal programs, and

WHEREAS, after having been read for the first time, the proper committee shall have to consider, act upon, or pass over such proposal or recommendation, and

WHEREAS, in order to give proper consideration to such proposals and recommendations, each delegate should be advised of the financial ramifications thereof,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Constitutional Convention, that beginning Friday, September 29, 1967, each delegate proposal and substantive committee recommendation regarding a fiscal program be accompanied with a memorandum setting forth the monetary budget required by the fiscal program, and if a similar program now exists, a comparative cost study of the proposed program with the program now in existence.
